

What every member should know about...

The benefits of being a member

Each local is assigned an MFT&SRP staff person who, working with the MFT&SRP officers and attorneys, provides a wide-range of services to locals. Local assistance and services include:

- Negotiating
- Contract administration
- Professional development classes, workshops and conferences
- Union leadership training
- Political and legislative action
- Research and financial analysis
- Legal Assistance
- Informational Resources and Publications
- Legislation
- Organizing and Mobilizing
- Occupational Liability Insurance
- Retiree Services